Ceremony

At the December meeting of the Lions Club the members had their wives out for an evening of fun and fellowship, and to share a sumptuous meal with them.

The meeting was at Holley's Restaurant, and in keeping with the tradition of the season the Holley's prepared a table lavish with a variety of delicious foods for buffet serving. Lynn Hudson entertained the group with a number of Christmas songs, accompanied by Mrs. Judy Butts. After this. Lion President Dr. M. V. Miles introduced and presented Lion Fran C. Miles, Zone Chairman, Enterprise, who performed an impressive indoctrination ceremony for three new Lion members. These were Mr. Paxton Moles, Mr. Dale Moseley and Mr. F. D. Morrow. Two other new members who could not be present were Mr. Doug Holderfield and Mr. Rex Boutwell. Lion, Fran Miles' wife was also a guest of the

him perform is an experience you'll never forget!

Terry Jerome Stokes was born in Alma, Georgia. His family moved to Atlanta, when he was 12 years old. Terry was 17 when he saw hypnotist Jack Berry performing in Atlanta, and from that moment hypnosis and the constant search for information dealing in psychology and human development took precedence over everything he did. Within 5 years Terry had received his doctorate in Hypno-therapy and Pshycogenics from the Atlanta Hypnosis Institute. Today he is on their Board of Directors and is a senior member of their Advisory Council.

After several years in private practice as a Hypno-therapist, Terry left his clinic in Atlanta to pursue a stage career, never dreaming he would evenually become one of the most acclaimed stage hypnotist of our time. He now performs for thousands weekly and though his schedule of appearances takes him throughout the United States, Terry will always find time to sit and talk with concerned persons he may encounter. His true feelings and love for people is what makes him such an outstanding entertainer. His amazing ability to "command" captures the audience. To see

Terry's beautiful partner and assistant known only as "Brandy" was born in the Smokey Mountains of Ashville, North Carolina. She became interested in music at the early age of 5, and with the help and encouragement of her mother was singing and recording with various country music groups by the age of 7. She continued her musical career for several years, until the mystery of magic lured her to become a professional magician's assistant. As such,

Brandy has toured internationally, her favorite performance being an illusion performed center ring of the Hannaford Shrine Circus, in Baltimore and New Orleans. She joined "Mr. Hypnosis" in the earliest days of staging his show. In they're over and I can get back on schedule. We took a week off Opp & Brundidge Lead South Alabama Conference As much as I enjoyed the holidays, I'll have to admit I'm glad at The Clipper, and I actually lost track of what day it was! If it hadn't been for the TV Guide, I never would have figured it out.

I watched quite a bit of football over the holidays, and saw at least a half in the following bowls -- Holiday, Sun, Blue-Gray, Fiesta, Gator, Bluebonnet, Sugar, Rose, Orange and East-West Shrine. I didn't jot down any notes about the games, but things Elba's Don Horstead has really been in the news lately. Horstead, a 5-10, 190-pound tailback, was named "All-State" by both the Birmingham News and Montgomery Advertiser, and was chosen "Class 3A Offensive Player of the Year" by the Dothan Eagle. Don has gained over 2600 yards in two seasons, and already has college scouts looking forward to next year. Congratulations, Don, and keep up the good work!

The weekly "Clipper Prep Poll" returns this week following a short vacation, and there has been a slight shake-up in the top teams in the South.
